Puppet Play!

How can you resist a musical that says it's 80% Tony-winning hilarity, 10% adult content and 10% foam rubber? Avenue Q, February 11-14, INB Performing Arts Center, is the story of some ordinary folks trying to make it in New York City with big dreams and a tiny bank account. Where does the foam rubber come in? The story is told by a cast of humans and puppets in a smart, risqué and very entertaining way! This show is definitely for adults only. Avenue Q was Broadway's smash-hit in 2004 winning a Tony Award® for Best Musical, Best Score and Best Book. Tickets range from $30-$58. For more information visit BestofBroadwaySpokane.com, TicketsWest.com or call 800.325.7328.

Chocolate + Wine = Love!

Valentine's Day and Cupid. Wine and Chocolate. Some things just go together. Enjoy wonderful wine and chocolate pairings with your Valentine at Caterina Winery, February 14, 5:30pm. It's a perfect way to celebrate the holiday of love! Tickets are $30. For more information visit CaterinaWinery.com or call 747.0955.

Little Locomotives!

Know someone who can't get enough of tiny trains? Get on the track to the Model Railroad Train Show, February 14, Spokane Community College Lair Building at the NE Corner of Mission & Greene Streets. Model railroads have been a popular hobby since trains were invented! Avid collectors, enthusiasts and those who just find a little romance in train travel will marvel at the operating train layouts in different scales with bridges, tunnels, cities and more! Adult admission is just $5 and children get in for $3. For more information go to VisitSpokane.com or call 292.8332.
