Roll out the Barrels!

Spring brings with it blooming flowers, blue skies and barrels of new spring wine! Sample sumptuous offerings from twelve Spokane wineries during Spring Barrel Tasting May 9-11 from 11am-5pm. It's a weekend of wine, food and fun at Arbor Crest Wine Cellars, Barrister Winery, Caterina Winery, Grande Ronde Cellars, Knipprath Winery, Latah Creek Wine Cellars, Lone Canary Winery, Mountain Dome Winery, Nodland Cellars, Robert Karl Winery, Townshend Cellars and Vintage Hill Cellars. If you are a wine aficionado or just want to learn more, this is a perfect opportunity to talk with wine lovers and experts at each location. Whether you visit a few wineries or visit them all, you can sample new wines, pre-release wines and wines still in process directly from the barrels or tanks. It's a wonderful event to share with Mom for Mother's Day or with friends or oenophiles (that's a fancy name for wine lover!) For more information and exact locations, visit SpokaneWineries.net or call 926.0164.

Historic Homes!

Have you ever wandered by a beautiful, old home and wished you could get a peek inside? Here's your chance! The Mother's Day Historic Home Tour May 10 & 11 from noon-4pm, is a self-guided tour inside and outside of some of Spokane's wonderful and historic homes. This year's tour is inspired by the Northwest Museum of Arts & Culture's (MAC) current exhibit, Olmsted Brothers: Designing Spokane Landscapes, which runs through September 21, 2008. Take Mom, a friend, or any history lover you know and explore some gorgeous home interiors as well as residential and park landscapes by the Olmsted Brothers, designers of famed Central Park in New York City. Tickets are $15 per person and available at the MAC, 2316 W 1st Avenue. For more information call 456.3931 or visit NorthwestMuseum.org.
